

AMERICAN THIRD PARTIES MUST UNITE!

If not now, When?

“Listen. The only people we hate more than the Romans are the fucking Judean People’s Front...*And the Judean Popular People’s Front...*And the People’s Front of Judea...We’re the People’s Front of Judea!...I thought we were the Popular Front...”-Monty Python’s Life of Bryan

In American history, third parties play an important role only in times of economic crisis, war and party realignment. Now is such a time. Can we depend on ourselves to avoid the stereotypical pitfalls of third party infighting? “Not because it is easy, but because it is hard?”

Suggestions for an emergency program for peace and economic recovery:

- Abundant energy and water resources at the lowest possible cost
- Environmental restoration through “big science” like advanced nuclear
- Divert Alaskan water runoff to California and Southwest
- Defend The Bill of Rights; no censorship
- Tax Wall Street speculation to relieve Main Street
- Negotiate Peace
- Stop treating half the population as “Enemies of the State”
- Nationalize the Federal Reserve (Lincoln and FDR effectively did this); create Public Banks
- Development projects for the third world to ease the refugee crisis
- End the War on Drugs
- 0% Student Loans; Free State, Vocational and Community College
- $0 Down on First Homes (the time it takes to save a down payment will stall a generation)
- Intelligence Community guardrails
- Revisit FDR’s Economic Bill of Rights
- Encourage strong unions and union building
- Second Works Progress Administration (WPA) to oversee national building initiative of abundant affordable housing; humane, state of the art mental health and rehab facilities.
